FATEH PRAKASH PALACE, UDAIPUR, RAJASTHA

Udaipur - Owing to the presence of the Pichola, the Udai Sagar, and the Swaroop Sagar -- among the most beautiful lakes in the state of Rajasthan - Udaipur is endearingly referred to as the City of Lakes. The majestic palaces of Udaipur are fine examples of superlative architectural skills. It therefore comes as no surprise that it is one of the foremost tourist destinations of the country and frequented by many. The historic town with its meandering lanes offers a wide variety of historic and cultural experiences to the visitor with its exquisite havelis, temples, ghats, baoris and gardens such as the famous Saheliyon ki Bari and Gulab Bagh. The Fateh Prakash Palace is majestically located along the shores of Pichola Lake in Udaipur. The palace gets its name after one of the greatest rulers of Mewar dynasty, Maharana Fateh Singh. The palace was renovated and converted into a heritage hotel, known for its par excellence and royal architecture. The palace features distinctive turrets and majestic domes. The palace also showcases a treasure-trove of priceless paintings, exquisite chandeliers, and collection of unique crystal and crockery. The Durbar Hall and the Crystal Gallery, resplendent with rare paintings and objects d'art, connect you to a rich and authentic heritage.

- Accommodation – The property consists of 21 Dovecote Rooms and 44 Dovecote Premier Suites. The suites and rooms are decorated with original paintings and period furniture from the toshakhanas or royal storerooms, cocoon you in velvety luxury as you soak in the ever-changing hues of the lake from the large arched windows.
- Culinary Delight – Consistently rated as one of the top restaurants of India, the Sunset Terrace offers dramatic views of Udaipur's most famous landmark palaces. The open-to-sky restaurant offers a varied menu to choose from while taking in the magnificent natural scenery. Live musicians add to the magic. At Surya Darshan Bar, you'd love the English Afternoon Tea service. You could sit back here with a drink and watch the sun set over the hills ringing Lake Pichola. Truly, a picturesque sight!
