

MALABAR BACKWATERS (KASARGOD), KERALA

Malabar Backwaters – the yet unexplored jewel of northern Kerala. Cruise through the tranquil backwaters in the Lotus, a houseboat of unparalleled elegance and style, offering serenity and healing relaxation. From time immemorial, the lotus flower has been a symbol of the very best things in life – refinement, purity and beauty. In Indian art the flower has always represented heavenly comfort and spiritual enlightenment. Lotus, the houseboat, is an imaginative new interpretation of the traditional Kerala houseboat, a unique creation that combines the natural rhythms of the old-fashioned with the modern amenities of a first-class hotel. Designed to give its guests a feeling of freedom and the luxury of space, the decor is light and airy with cheerful colours; the bedrooms have large glass observation windows; ethnic rugs and paintings in the traditional temple mural style; there is also an i-pod docking system, if needed.

- Accommodation – The tastefully decorated rooms are spacious, and feature teak-wood flooring, hand-made teak furniture, private veranda, and state-of-the-art en suite facilities.
- Eco-friendly – In an effort to create an eco-friendly environment, the Lotus follows a ‘no-plastic’ rule; safe and pure drinking water is supplied using the latest Reverse Osmosis purification system rather than from indestructible plastic bottles; and no waste is discharged into the lake.
- Ayurveda & Yoga – Ayurveda massage and Yoga lessons can be made available on board on request.
